

Front-End Project Documentation

Screenshot home page

This screenshot represents the landing page of the application. It includes navigation options and a welcoming interface.

Screenshot of course page

This image showcases the login or authentication page, where users enter their credentials to access the application.

Screenshot of instructor page

Here, the main dashboard is displayed, providing an overview of available features and recent activities.

Screenshot

This screenshot highlights a user interaction section, such as form inputs or user profile settings.

Screenshot

A detailed view of a specific feature or module in the application, providing an in-depth user experience.

Screenshot of enroll page

The settings or configuration page of the application, allowing users to personalize their experience.

